Ex-Foreign Correspondent

Bay Area Radio-TV Analyst To Discuss Cuban Situation

The Cuba situation will be discussed by bay area radio-tele- vision news analyst William Winter in Morris Dailey auditorium Monday at 11:30 a.m.

Mr. Winter, whose talk will be sponsored by the history department and the Department of Journalism and Advertising, has traveled around the world several times as a foreign correspondent during his 25 years as a news analyst.

He has visited every country in Asia—except Siberia—on a number of trans-Pacific trips and has toured Europe, the Middle East and parts of Latin America.

UNIQUE EXPERIENCE
Mr. Winter had the unique experience of interviewing both President Nasser of the United Arab Republic and Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion on Middle East tensions.

During World War II, the news analyst was a roving correspondent in the Far East for an overseas news agency, which provided background stories to more than 250 U.S. newspapers. He was also a correspondent at the United Nations Charter conference in San Francisco in 1945.

In the past six years Mr. Winter has toured West Germany as a guest of the Bonn government and has visited Yugoslavia twice.

He may be heard daily in an analysis of the news on ABC radio. He is also seen several times a week on KGO-TV, including his Sunday evening program "Mapping the News."

400 Pep Leaders From High Schools Arrive Tomorrow

More than 400 high school students will arrive on campus tomorrow morning at 8:30 for the annual high school rally convention, Bill Jacobsen, rally committee vice-chairman, announced.

Jacobsen, also head of the rally convention, stated that each year high schools within a 50-mile radius send up to 15 representatives to the convention.

Tomorrow's activities will include three discussion sessions on rally committee activities, song girl and yell leader workshops, a fashion show sponsored by Mosher's, and competition to determine the high school with the best group of song girls and yell leaders.

The fashion show will display various types of song girl and yell leader outfits, along with other campus attire.

Jacobsen said that a trophy will be awarded to the most outstanding high school. Judging will be on a basis of rally committee activity summaries submitted by each high school, spirit, convention participation and song girl and yell leader participation. He added that last year's first place trophy was won by St. Mary's high school.

Judiciary To Review Illegal Voting

ASB Attorney - General Dan Plumley yesterday said that three students will definitely be brought before the Judiciary in connection with voting irregularities in the past election.

Plumley stated that "one girl was caught voting with the wrong ASB card," and "two members of Theta Chi fraternity will be questioned about one ballot box in particular," which contained five ballots stuck together, all with identical markings.

Plumley continued, however, that the five ballots in question, all marked for the Paper Ballot slate, in no way altered the total vote ratio. "It was still two-to-one for all the candidates on the remainder of the ballots," he commented.

Elections board chairman Bob Sharp told the Spartan Daily that Plumley had contacted him "for some information," but declined any further comment.

Dr. Lowell M. Walter, faculty adviser to the elections board, said he "couldn't answer any questions because of a lack of knowledge" about the situation.

On the day of the election, ASB Pres. Pat McClenahan personally apprehended a girl voting with another ASB card. Wednesday he met with the student Attorney-General in a closed conference on the voting infractions.

Plumley declined to release the names of the students involved yesterday, but assured the Spartan Daily that there would be "an open hearing" when the case is aired.

McClenahan could not be reached for comment.

7 OSU Students Apprehended After Water Fiasco

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Students, variously estimated at 300 to 1500, rioted at Oregon state university here Wednesday night, damaging two buildings.

Seven arrests were made after city and state police came to the aid of campus officers.

Six of the youths were arrested off campus as a result of water fights. They posted bond of $25 each. Another was arrested on campus and charged with disorderly conduct.

The riots started as a water balloon fight along fraternity row, according to Dean of Men Dr. Dan Poling. He said about 300 students were involved. Some witnesses and students said the number was 1500.

TO GIRLS' DORMS

The students fought their way into a girls' dormitory, causing some damage to books and personal belongings.

The disturbances lasted about an hour.

One student said the disturbance started when Corvallis police cars "came roaring up" to halt the water fights. One policeman was accidentally struck with a water-filled balloon, the student said.

FIRE A SHOT

The student, unidentified, said the officer pulled his revolver "and fired a shot into the air. That's what really started the riot."

Police Sgt. Charles Downing said four cars were sent to the campus. He said he doubted that an officer fired a shot.

After the police arrived, the throng toppled two guard houses at the campus entrance and kicked out the glass windows.

ALL FOR CHARITY

ILFORD, England (UPI)—The organizer of a charity sale, Mrs. Phyllis Proctor, took off her tweed jacket briefly to cool off. When she went back to get it, she found it had been sold.

'Operation Abolition' Narrator

'Reds Work To Control Youth' Says HCUA Researcher Lewis

Fulton Lewis III, voice of "Operation Abolition," the controversial film of the San Francisco anti-HCUA demonstrations, told an SJS audience last night that the Communist leaders in America "have made a significant change of emphasis toward the manipulation of youth to achieve their goals."

Lewis, son of the commentator Fulton Lewis Jr., said that the present boss of the party in America, "was trained in how to attract, direct and manipulate youth to be a potent force for the party" at Moscow's Lenin school of Political Warfare.

CITY HALL RIOTS

The HCUA research analyst described the circumstances leading to the now famous city hall riots to a highly sympathetic audience of 150 preceding the showing of a 28-minute version of "Operation Abolition."

Lewis stated the Communist party started their all-out drive to abolish the committee in 1957 and that the success of their efforts was demonstrated at the San Francisco hearings.

He told how a University of California student subpoenaed to appear at the hearings "contacted the party leaders and was given directives in the methods of arousing the sympathy of students."

'COMMUNIST DIRECTED'

"The rioting that occurred inside the city hall was Communist inspired," Lewis said, adding, "To be perfectly fair there were other groups — non-Communist — there that protested the hearings conscientiously."

"Everyone in this country has the right to protest and to demonstrate ... but everyone who does also has the responsibility to educate himself to the facts," he said.

"I am sure most of the demonstrators were as American as anyone in this room," Lewis continued, "but their actions were a result of a lack of study and naivety of the situation."

'NOT PERFECT'

"I am sure the HCUA is not perfect—but I've yet to see one constructive change suggested by the groups opposing it," he said.

In a question period, Lewis told an inquiring student the committee has made 69 legislative recommendations now pending before the House of Representatives.

LINE IN ERROR

Lewis said that the recent acquittal of student demonstrator Robert Meisenbach "did not hurt the committee or the film at all" but conceded that evidence at the trial "showed that one line of the film was in error and I think that line should be removed."

"The evidence did not at all discredit the purpose of the film—to show the operation of Communist infiltration and agitation," he said.

Friday Flicks

"Somebody Up There Likes Me" will be shown by the senior class tonight in TH55 at 7:30, according to Rod Diridon, senior class president. The Friday Flick features Paul Newman and Pier Angeli.

Last Day Today To Obtain Tickets For Jr.-Sr. Dance

Today is the last day to purchase bids for "Hawaiian Nocturne," the junior-senior ball to be held tomorrow night at the Hawaiian Gardens from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Bids for the semi-formal ball may be purchased in front of the Spartan bookstore, cafeteria or in TH16, according to Kathy Kennedy, junior class publicity chairman.

Students who ordered leis for the ball may pay for them in TH16, Miss Kennedy said.

Reed on Sale Now in TH16

Reed magazine is still available in the Student Affairs business office, TH16, after a one-day sale at stands around campus.

The 44-page fiction magazine costs 35 cents.

A display of old copies of Reed's predecessors—Quill magazine and El Portal magazine—has been set up in one of the showcases in the south corridor of the main library building, according to Margaret Novotny, Reed publicity chairman.

Reed magazine was begun in 1948 by the Pegasus writers club and is published under their editorial supervision by the English department.

Exhibit Deadline

Today is the deadline for art works for the annual Art department sponsored student art exhibit. Entries may be submitted to A135 between 9:30 and noon, and between 2 and 4 p.m.

LAOS REBELS BLAST U.S.

GENEVA (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk left the 14-nation conference on Laos yesterday a few minutes before the pro-Communist Pathet Lao delegate rose to attack the United States for "interfering internally" in Laos.

But a U.S. delegation spokesman said Rusk's departure was a coincidence and that he had an appointment with Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk at that time. Rusk returned to the conference room after the Pathet Lao speaker had finished.

Rusk left after he sat through an hour-long speech and most of an equally long translation period in which neutralist India lined up with the West in rejecting Soviet demands for veto power over operations to police the peace in Laos.

Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon told the delegates to the 14-nation parley that "we must have no veto arrangement."

PROTEST STRIKE HITS FRANCE

PARIS (UPI)—A nation-wide strike by nearly 500,000 French workers protesting against President Charles de Gaulle's economic austerity program left the nation's railroads and Paris' transportation services virtually paralyzed yesterday.

Electricity and gas works employees started a four-hour stoppage of their own yesterday morning after railwaymen and subway and bus workers walked off their jobs several hours earlier.

JFK-DIEFENBAKER WARN CUBA

OTTAWA (UPI)—Canada's Prime Minister John Diefenbaker joined with President Kennedy yesterday in a warning that any Western Hemisphere alignment with foreign communism—obviously referring to Cuba—threatens "peaceful and democratic evolution" in Latin America.

Diefenbaker, whose government maintains diplomatic and trade relations with Cuba, agreed with Kennedy "that the alignment of a regime in the Western Hemisphere with Communist leadership abroad was a matter for serious concern."

FOUR RUSS GENERALS DIE

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Defense Ministry announced yesterday the deaths of four Soviet generals and a colonel in an "aircraft accident" while "carrying out their duties."

The dead included Army Gen. V. U. Kolpakchi, a World War II army commander and hero of the Soviet Union. More recently, he had been an official at the Defense Ministry.

The brief announcement as circulated by the official Soviet Tass news agency did not give details of the accident.

NEHRU GREETES JOHNSON

NEW DELHI (UPI)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson arrived here yesterday for a three-day visit and immediately began conferences with Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who ignored protocol and personally greeted the American at the airport.

Nehru joined Indian Vice President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan at the airport to welcome Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird, as they stepped off their special jet plane into New Delhi's 103-degree heat after a flight from Thailand.

Original Play By Graduate Starts Run

"Tomorrow's a Working Day," an original three-act play by graduate student Jim Slater, opens tonight at 8:15 in Studio Theater. Admission is free.

The play, which runs about two hours, is a social tragedy dealing with the disintegration of a lower middle class Colorado family. The action, spanning 1944-50, takes place in a rented house in Denver.

Al Blair portrays the father, a traveling salesman with a yen for alcohol. Lona Wright plays his sick wife, and Herbert Stewart, their son.

SUPPORTING CAST

Others in the cast are Ed Bellings, Drusilla Green, Mari-Lynn Henry, and Joan Hammond.

Author Slater, 28, said he wrote the play, his fifth, last spring in three days. He has also written 30 short stories and one unpublished novel.

Tonight marks the play's first public performance. "It will be an experience for me," Slater commented, "to be able to see the characters come alive on stage and spot the strong and weak points production-wise."

Ben Shelton, also 28 and a graduate student, is directing the all-student production in partial fulfillment for his master's degree in speech and drama. He also designed the sets and lighting.

'COMMENTS WELCOME'

"At the conclusion of the play," Shelton added, "the author and myself will go into the audience to get its reaction first-hand."

The production is under the supervision of Dr. Jack Neeson, assistant professor of drama. The play ends tomorrow night at 8:15 in Studio Theater.

SJS Grads To Receive Public Affairs Award

Former Homecoming Queen Maryleela Rao and William B. Sturgeon, SJS graduate, have been selected to receive the Coro Foundation Internship in Public Affairs award, the foundation recently announced.

The SJS grads along with 10 other recipients will begin their nine-month internship this September in San Francisco.

The purpose of the program, under which interns observe and participate in government activities, business operations, labor affairs, political campaigns, and legislative functions, is to give people interested in public service fundamental training and insight into public affairs.

OUTSTANDING WOMEN

Miss Rao, a native of Bombay, India, was the only woman to represent her country in the 1956 Olympic games in Australia. She was selected as one of India's 12 outstanding women by Trend magazine in 1959.

In addition to reigning as 1960 SJS Homecoming Queen, Miss Rao was vice president of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism sorority, and was chosen outstanding member of Alpha Phi sorority.

The 21-year-old coed was graduated from SJS in January with a major in journalism. Prior to attending SJS Miss Rao was a student at St. Xavier college of Bombay university.

OUTSTANDING MALE

Sturgeon, a 23-year-old resident of Palo Alto, served on the SJS Student Council for two years during which time he was freshman president, sophomore representative and male representative-at-large.

He was elected president of Blue Key, national honorary fraternity, in both 1958 and 1959 and was active in the campus Air Force ROTC program.

In 1959 Sturgeon was selected the Outstanding Male of his graduating class. He is a business administration major.

Music Festival In Fourth Year

The fourth annual Contemporary Music festival begins at 9:30 this morning with an address by George McKay, professor of music at the University of Washington.

The address will be "more or less philosophic," according to Dr. Robert Hare, associate professor of music and director of the festival.

After McKay's address four SJS musical groups will perform works from unpublished manuscripts submitted from all over the country. According to Dr. Hare, 150 manuscripts were submitted for presentation at the festival.

UNPUBLISHED WORKS

"The purpose of the festival is to provide composers with an opportunity to have their unpublished manuscript works performed and to promote composition for school groups on the secondary and collegiate levels," Dr. Hare said.

The festival, which was recognized as an important cultural event by the recent President's Committee on Music and has been advertised in American embassies abroad, has scheduled one of Dr. McKay's works, "Aretic Legend" for brass ensemble, as one of the major works to be performed.

COMPOSERS FORUM

The composers who will have their works performed in the day-long program will participate in a composer forum at 11:30 a.m.

The composers participating will be Dr. Paul Pisk, Leonard Berkowitz, Rowan Taylor, Eunice Kettering, Elliott Schartz, Irvin Brusletten, Stanley Summers, J. Shaffer Smith and Richard Smith.

OLD GRADS NEVER DIE

In just a matter of weeks many of you will be graduating—especially seniors.

You are of course eager to go out in the great world where opportunities are limitless and deans nonexistent. At the same time your hearts are heavy at the thought of losing touch with so many classmates you have come to know and love.

It is my pleasant task today to assure you that graduation need not mean losing touch with classmates; all you have to do is join the Alumni Association and every year you will receive a bright, newsy, chatty bulletin, chock full of information about all your old buddies.

It was her second in four months.....

Oh, what a red-letter day it is at my house, the day the Alumni Bulletin arrives! I cancel all my engagements, take the phone off the hook, dismiss my chiropractor, put the ocelot outside, and settle down for an evening of pure pleasure with the Bulletin and (need I add?) a good supply of Marlboro Cigarettes.

Whenever I am having fun, a Marlboro makes the fun even more fun. That filter, that flavor, that pack or box never fails to heighten my pleasure whether I am watching the television or playing buck euchre or knitting an afghan or reading Mad or enjoying any other fun-filled pursuit you might name—except, of course, spearfishing. But then, how much spearfishing does one do in Clovis, New Mexico, where I live?

But I digress. Let us return to my Alumni Bulletin and let me quote for you the interesting tidings about all my old friends and classmates:

Well, fellow alums, it certainly has been a wing-dinger of a year for all us old grads! Remember Mildred Cheddar and Harry Camembert, those crazy kids who always held hands in Econ II? Well, they're married now and living in Clovis, New Mexico, where Harry rents spearfishing equipment and Mildred has just given birth to a lovely 28-pound daughter, her second in four months. Nice going, Mildred and Harry!

Remember Jethro Brie, the man we voted most likely to succeed? Well, old Jethro is still gathering laurels! Last week he was voted "Motorman of the Year" by his fellow workers in the Duluth streetcar system. "I owe it all to my brakeman," said Jethro in a characteristically modest acceptance speech. Same old Jethro!

Probably the most glamorous time of all us alums was had by Francis Macomber last year. He went on a big game hunting safari all the way to Africa! We received many interesting post cards from Francis until he was, alas, accidentally shot and killed by his wife and white hunter. Tough luck, Francis!

Wilma "Deadeye" Macomber, widow of the late beloved Francis Macomber, was married yesterday to Fred "Sureshot" Quimby, white hunter, in a simple double-ring ceremony in Nairobi. Good luck, Wilma and Fred!

Well, alums, that just about wraps it up for this year. Keep 'em flying!

No U.S. Korean Intervention Says State Department

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State department said yesterday American troops will not become involved in South Korea where a military junta seized power over the government.

The statement was made after acting Secretary of State Chester Bowles took a hopeful view of the Korean coup during a closed-door testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Bowles was quoted after the session as saying that the junta apparently was interested mainly in cleaning up corruption and not in maintaining a permanent military dictatorship.

NO INVOLVEMENT

The U.S. attitude on intervention was spelled out by State Department spokesman Joseph Reap in response to questions.

"American troops are not involved in any way. They have not and will not be," Reap told a news conference.

He said the U.S. Embassy at Seoul is in contact with both sides in Korea—the military junta and representatives of the overthrown government of Premier John M. Chang.

'U.S. NOT NEGOTIATOR'

Reap said the American Embassy was not attempting to act as a negotiator but that both sides "are consulting us." He said no orders have gone out to cancel U.S. aid to Korea.

Bowles told reporters after his meeting with the committee that he hoped the Korean "blow-up" would lead eventually to a "type of government that will give the Koreans a solid future."

'Stupid, Reactionary' To Berate Dr. Koch

EDITOR—I must take exception to the letter written by Mr. Sayid-Hatim in the May 17 Spartan Daily. Dr. Leo Koch advocated pre-marital relations for those who are sufficiently mature to have such a relationship without violating their own code of ethics and morality.

He advocated this type of relationship in lieu of hours of frustrating petting that is so common among young people. This is not an invitation to promiscuity or indiscriminacy. Obviously Mr. Sayid-Hatim is not secure enough in his own code of ethics or mature enough to see the advisability of Dr. Koch's view or to be tolerant of ideas that differ from his own.

People mature enough to have a relationship such as Dr. Koch describes would certainly be mature enough to maintain their academic pursuits and take the necessary precautions to prevent the tremendous rise in birthrate that Mr. Sayid-Hatim predicts. Again, this is NOT an invitation to promiscuity or indiscriminacy. Certainly Dr. Koch did not mean to imply that he favored a breakdown of the family unit.

His point was that by encouraging freedom to express biological drives in a healthy manner, better sexual adjustment in marriage would result. The frustrations and deviations and perversions that result from the mores that society inflicts upon us certainly are not healthy and lead to serious problems, in many instances, in adjustment to marriage.

I object strenuously, also, to Mr. Sayid-Hatim's insinuation that Dr. Koch and his ideas are fostering and furthering subversive movements. This is stupid and reactionary thinking.

'Need Constructive' Policy Toward Latins

EDITOR—I agree with Mr. Ooka that it would take a volume to present the Cuban situation fairly. However, does Mr. Ooka think that because only a volume would do Cuba justice, that nothing should be written in the newspaper about it?

At present the United States is embroiled in a two-front war (Cuba and Laos) against communism. The United States appears to be losing or to have lost both battles. Why has the United States bungled its fight for "freedom"? Apparently our methods and our foreign policy are partly at fault (which also may account for our falling prestige).

The people of Latin America do not want to be bribed and bought; they want economic and political freedom. They must be given something more than liberty and democracy in abstract terms. They need to be able to read before they can vote intelligently. The people must have something to eat before they can appreciate the abstractions of democracy. The sooner we recog-

U.S. Needs Group 'For Democracy'

EDITOR—In reply to the letters condemning Karl Prussion's previous speech on this campus, I wish to say we do need an organization against communism—an organization for democracy.

Are we all going to blind ourselves to the fact that the Communist party in the United States is penetrating into every phase of our American way of life? We don't need Karl Prussion or anyone else to tell us that the Communist organizations are getting stronger every year. We need only to look around at the world situation today; there is our answer.

The American people realize this situation but they are not organized to counter-attack. The Communist propaganda machine is one of the Soviet Union's most effective war weapons. They will stop at nothing to achieve their goal—world-wide communism.

We all know this. It's nothing new. What are we going to do about it?

'Silent Moderate' Speaks Out On 'Riots'

EDITOR—In recent letters to the editor, concern has been voiced over the "silent moderates." Perhaps it is time for this one to speak out.

What jolted me into recklessly joining battle? An article in Tuesday's Daily reporting that executive council of the California Federation of Teachers has adopted a resolution in which it "congratulates the bay area students involved (in the city hall riots last May) for their vigorous defense of American civil liberties . . ."

I have watched movies of the riots, listened to eyewitness reports and debates, read news accounts and pamphlets. And I have become sure of only two things: first, I do not yet know the full truth. Second, neither students nor police deserve congratulations. The entire incident was a pretty sorry affair. Thus I find the implications of the union's resolution highly disturbing.

Please understand me. I do not say that one cannot applaud the motives of one side or another. However, approving of the original purpose is one thing. "Congratulating" either side for its actual behavior is something quite different. Surely it must be admitted that neither police nor students provided models of rational restraint and dignity.

The dormitory placed third in the parade competition, taking the theme to "Frontierland" for the "Spardi in Disneyland" motif. A Mother-Father tea was held on Mother's Day along with open house in observance of the day.

MUSIC RECITAL

NEW HARPSICHORD—John Gillespie, associate professor of music at the University of California at Santa Barbara will perform on SJS' new $3800 harpsichord, the largest concert model in any California school, at a 3 p.m. Sunday recital. He will be joined by two SJS musicians in a trio by Rameau. Admission is 50 cents for students and $1 general.

Orchesis Opens Tonight

Students in the Orchesis dance group will present their graduate dance concert tonight at 8:15 in Morris Dailey auditorium.

The dancers, approximately 30 men and women, will present a series of unrelated musical selections tied together with the theme of the relation of poetry to music. Each of their presentations will be the interpretation or the inspiration of a poem.

Tickets priced at 50 cents for students and $1 general admission are still available at the Student Affairs business office, TH16. Tickets will be sold at the door tonight.

Canto I of the Paradise from Dante's Divine Comedy has been set to music and the dancers will interpret "Dante overwhelmed by the brilliant light of the heavens, the movement and the divine harmonies of the 'eternal wheels' as Beatrice explains and comforts him."

They will also use poetry by Ben Johnson, Robert LaFontaine, Victor Hugo and Carl Sandburg, in dances choreographed by Miss Margaret Lawler, assistant in physical education and coordinator of the show.

French Art Exhibit Valued at $300,000 Closes Here Today

"One-hundred Years of French Painting." The Phoenix Art museum's $300,000 exhibit, will close today at 4 p.m.

The exhibition which has been featured in the Art Gallery, A127, since April 23, is presented by the Art Department and cultural affairs committee, in cooperation with the Phoenix Art Museum, Arizona.

The show, while not comprehensive, includes many of the painters of the period from 1860 to 1960 and illustrates the profound stylistic distance between the Romantics of the 19th century and the abstract expressionists of the 20th.

Most of the artists of this collection are romantics who believed in the dream of a new world. Though accused of being morbid, escapist, and even immoral, their work has been described as intensely idealistic, nostalgic, and devoted to what was optimistically felt were the potentialities of nature.

Paintings in the exhibition include Jean Cocteau's "Mountain Goat," Henri Le Sidaner's "House by the River," Jean J. Henner's "The Martyr," and Constantine Guys' "Le Petit Tablier."

Library Concert

Records scheduled from noon to 1 p.m. and 3 to 4 p.m. in the library study room:
Bach: Brandenburg Concerti Nos. 2, 5, 6.

"The second day of our approach is fast on the wane, oh noble captain, and what dost thy keen eye perceive in the failing light?"

"Tis strange indeed, my attention is presently focused upon a most remarkable collection of notable features!"

"Captain, I implore thee, describe these features, of which you speak!"

"The great distance precludes a precise description, but, in five days, the truth shall be ours!"

Professor Plays New $3800 Harpsichord

By ELLEN SHULTE
Fine Arts Editor

The Music Department's new $3800 harpsichord, the largest concert model in any California school, will be featured in its first recital Sunday 3 p.m. in Concert Hall.

At that time John Gillespie, associate professor of music at the University of California, Santa Barbara, will perform music of Scarlatti and Couperin.

SJS PERFORMERS

Professor Gillespie will be joined by Gibson Walters, professor of music (violin), and Donald Homuth, associate professor of music (cello), in a trio by Rameau.

Although most of the Music Department's performances are without admission charge, tickets are being sold for this recital to raise money for music scholarships. Tickets, available at the Concert Hall box office, are 50 cents for students and $1 general admission.

"PRIZED INSTRUMENTS"

"We are the envy of our neighboring schools to have such a prized instrument," said Dr. Hartley D. Snyder, head of the Music Department, when referring to the harpsichord, which is a German Wittenberg Bach model, approximately 9 feet long. It is the largest concert model available.

The instrument is similar in shape to a modern grand piano but differs mainly in production of sound, the string being plucked (mechanically) instead of being struck by a hammer. The harpsichord, unlike the piano, has no sustaining power.

The harpsichord was used extensively from the 16th to the 18th centuries and recently there has been quite a renaissance of harpsichord music because the piano doesn't produce sounds the way the composers such as Bach and Scarlatti had intended.

Professor Gillespie was graduated from DePauw university and received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Southern California. He now teaches classes in music literature, organ and harpsichord.

He served as music director at the Paris study center, France, 1945-46, and he received a Fulbright grant in 1949.

SJS Artists Sing In Festival Chorus Sunday Evening

The Bach Festival chorus, featuring SJS professors and students, will present the "Passion according to St. John," Sunday night at 8 at the Church of the Valley, Santa Clara.

Dr. Edwin C. Dunning, assistant professor of music, will conduct the group of 120 singers and instrumentalists. Dr. Dunning, who directed the SJS opera workshop productions of "Coffee Contata" and "Game of Chance," recently was heard in his fourth appearance with the San Jose symphony singing the bass arias of the Bach B Minor mass.

PROFESSORS SING

Heading the list of soloists will be Frederick Loadwick, assistant professor of music, singing the recitative narrative of the "Evangelist." The voice of Jesus will be sung by Robert Madsen.

Soprano Carmen Barreras, SJS voice and opera scholarship winner at, will sing the soprano arias.

Graduate Nance Ash, now a San Jose elementary school teacher, and Linda Stones, SJS music senior, will interpret the two alto arias. In June Miss Stones will travel to Milan, Italy, where she will study with Dr. Otto Mueller, teacher of opera singer Irene Dallis, who is an SJS graduate.

Tenor and bass arias will be sung by James Paris, Theodore Simmons, Manuel Patterakis and Robert Waterbury. Waterbury and Simmons are the regular soloists at Church of the Valley. Simmons will play the male lead in the forthcoming SJS production of the "Beggars' Opera."

Patterakis and Paris are SJS graduates who are working on their Master's degrees.

FOREMOST GOLDEN STATE Athlete of the Week

Bob Poynter

The Spartan sprint star is back with coach Bud Winter's track contingent for three meets this season. Poynter was the No. 2 sprinter behind Olympian, Ray Norton, in 1960 and now adds depth to the SJS sprint squad headed up by, the now world famous, Dennis Johnson. The Bullet has been clocked at 9.4 on more than one occasion and was a strong point in last season's top relay team.

Whenever you leave town, carry money only you can spend: Bank of America Travelers Cheques. Loss-proof, theft-proof, cashed only by your signature. Sold at banks everywhere.

SJS Golfers Place Second In Loop Meet

The Spartan golf team, paced by No. 1 man John Lotz, took a second in the WCAC tourney Monday at the Los Angeles Country Club to conclude a winning 1961 season.

Coach Walt McPherson's squad finished five strokes, 306-311, behind Santa Clara for the tournament championship. Lotz fired a 72 on the tough Los Angeles course to capture tourney medalist honors.

The distinction was the last in a long line of honors awarded Lotz this season. McPherson's brilliant sophomore averaged 71.5 strokes per match in 21 rounds of intercollegiate competition to record the best Spartan total since the undisputed reign of Ken Venturi in the early 1950s.

In dual meet competition the Spartans maintained an 11-7-1 record through a schedule which listed golf giants as Stanford and USC. Both teams handed McPherson's crew lopsided defeats in the closing weeks of the season.

The Spartans opened the final swing of the 1961 campaign by soundly beating San Francisco state 18-9 on the San Jose course. Lotz fired a 67 and Bob Ginn a 72 to anchor the Spartan attack.

From that point on San Jose went on to drop three of their four final dual meets. Stanford initiated the skid at the Farm by topping the Spartans 20-6 1/2.

The locals returned to their winning ways three days later when Lotz, Ginn and Grant Hornbeak lead the Spartans to 22 1/2-4 1/2 win over WCAC champion Santa Clara.

Walt McPherson and his team traveled southward following the Bronco victory for two dual meets and the WCAC tourney. USC first mastered San Jose 24-3 to set the precedent for Los Angeles state's 21-6 triumph.

World Champions Flock to Modesto; Prep Whiz Enters

Track fans fortunate enough to attend the California Relays at Modesto on May 27 will have the opportunity of seeing some of the world's greatest athletes in action.

A recent entry in the meet has been Ted Nelson, Andrews, Texas, high schooler who recently turned in an unbelievable 46.5 clocking in the 440. Nelson's time broke the national high school mark of 46.6 set by Dave Mills in 1958.

The world's fastest woman sprinter, Wilma Rudolph, has agreed to run in a special 100 and 220-yard dash at the meet. Miss Rudolph won the 100 and 200-meter dashes at the Olympic Games last summer.

Highlight of the 1960 meet was the 3:58 mile time of Jim Beatty, the fastest ever run by an American. Entered in the event with the stubby miler is Laszlo Tabori, teammate of Beatty's on the Santa Clara Valley Youth Village squad.

Tickets for the meet sell for $2.75 and $3.50 and can be obtained at Roos-Atkins in San Jose.

Boxing Coach Hurt 2 Ways by Ring Tragedy

By FRANK CRACOLICE

Harry Campbell always intended to become a professional boxer. He loved the competition of man against man in the ring. Boxing was not just a way of making a living for the clean-cut Campbell, who supplanted the brash cockiness that identifies most fighters with a quiet, unassuming confidence.

Julie Menendez, who probably taught Campbell more than anyone else who crossed Harry's boxing path, said so in an interview today.

Menendez, the articulate SJS boxing coach — and former Olympic mentor — was in Harry Campbell's corner for his first six pro fights, five of them victorious ones. Monday night at Kezar Pavilion, Julie was there again, as a spectator — not a corner man.

Menendez, a man who gives 100 per cent of himself to anything he undertakes, wasn't in Campbell's corner because: "I wouldn't be doing him enough good; when I train a man, I want to train him."

"Harry didn't appear to be hit hard," said Menendez, discussing the tragic defeat of Campbell by Al Medrano, a fighter who "doesn't hit hard."

Menendez, asked whether he thought Campbell had been brought along too fast in the pro ranks, replied: "Harry's was a unique case. He was too good for the preliminary boys. The California Boxing Commission sanctions all matches. If they had thought Harry was being over-matched, they would have refused him permission for 10-round main events."

"For example, in the regional trials for the Olympics at San Francisco, he won all three of his bouts by TKO's. Harry was a fine boy. He never gave me any trouble."

Menendez, himself once a fine defensive fighter, was asked if Campbell was the type of fighter who would take a punch to land one. "Harry had great defensive ability. He didn't get hit much — too much finesse for that."

Medrano was the only pro to knock Campbell's feet from under him. He had done so in their first meeting, before decisioning him.

But for those who think that Campbell was rushed haphazardly through the pro jungle, it must be written that Harry was an 8-5 favorite to beat Medrano in their rematch. "I thought he was winning after the first five rounds," said Menendez. "In the sixth, Medrano started to come on; by the ninth, they both looked tired."

For Menendez, Campbell's death was a one-two punch — personal and vocational. The tragedy is certainly discouraging to Menendez' hopes for a revival of boxing at SJS.

It was the ability and character of Campbells and Menendezes that gave SJS boxing the stature it attained while it was here.

Harry Campbell's Manager

Saddened Bill Young Retires from Ring Activity

COMPANIONSHIP—Harry Campbell's manager and friend, Bill Young, is shown here congratulating his promising lightweight after the SJS student received an award from the northern California boxing writers as the most outstanding newcomer of 1960.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Bill Young, the heart-broken manager of the ill-fated Harry Campbell, wants no more of the fight business.

When Campbell died following his bout with Al Medrano, something went out of the game for Young.

"We were very close, very close," says Young. "I don't want to knock the fight game. But I don't see any reason now to continue in it. I was only in it for Harry."

Young operates a detective agency in San Jose. He had planned to retire Campbell if he recovered from his injuries. He wanted the youth to continue his education at San Jose State College. In the meantime, he was going to give the boy a job.

"I knew after trying it twice that he didn't have the stamina to go 10 rounds," says Young. "He was all through as a boxer, even if he had come out in good shape."

Young had taken the 23-year-old ex-Army paratrooper under his wing from the time he returned from the Olympic games, where he lost in the quarter finals.

"He stayed at my home part of the time," said Young. "You know, I have five other adopted children. I like children. He grew up without a father and I tried to take that place."

But for the life of him, he can't figure out what gave Harry the concussion.

"I've thought back over so many incidents," he reflects. "In training two weeks ago I remember that a young 146-pound amateur swung a haymaker at him. Harry walked right in and caught it on his chin. He staggered a bit, but didn't go down."

"Then 10 days ago or so, he was riding with his girl friend. She was driving and they had a minor accident. But he said he wasn't hurt. And she said the same thing."

Campbell told Young he blacked out after losing his first decision to Medrano. So the manager hustled him right down to a doctor for a thorough check-up. The doctor could find nothing wrong.

Willie Ritchie, inspector for the state athletic commission, is as puzzled as Young.

"This boy was such a clean living lad," said Ritchie. "It couldn't have had anything to do with his condition. I just don't understand it."

Young has a minor financial interest in a fighter named Charley Smith. And he has been helping another lad get under way.

"It may sound melodramatic to say this," repeats Young, "but I just can't go on as a manager."

Who's in Dashes at NCI? Better To Wait and See

The most confusing situation since Abbott and Costello's "Who's on First?" production has apparently been resolved. Latest word on who will run the sprints at the Northern California Invitational track and field meet tomorrow night is that Bob Poynter will, Dennis Johnson will not.

Johnson has been nursing a muscle strain since the West Coast relays one week ago and Spartan coach Bud Winter yesterday tentatively withdrew the Jamaican star for the Sunnyvale meet.

Tickets are still available for the meet in the Student Affairs Business office, TH16. Special student tickets cost $1 with ASB card. General admission tickets are priced at $2.50. The meet will start at 7:30 p.m. at Fremont high school.

In the sprints it will be Poynter heading the field. He has gotten the okay to run unattached so that he may also participate in the California Relays in Modesto next Saturday.

Opening the running program will be the 440 relay at 7:50, with a weakened SJS club meeting the San Jose frosh and the Youth Village. Stanford, Stanford frosh, California, service athletes and unattached competitors get into the act later in the evening.

Several top athletes will vie for first place trophies in the 13 events. Heading the mile field are Fred Abington (SCVYV), Woody Covington (Cal) and Ben Tucker (SJS frosh).

The 440 should be hotly contested between Keith Thomassen (SCVYV), Don Ramos and Willie Williams (SJS), Jack Yerman (unattached) and Bob Karlsrud (Cal). The same is true in the half where Jim Beatty (SCVYV), Jerry Seibert (SCVYV), Ernie Cunliffe (unattached), Larry Means (Oxnard AFB) and Rich Kleir (Stanford) will compete.

With Johnson not scheduled to run, Willie White or Poynter get the nod in the 100. Both will face more rugged competition in the 220 where Ramos and Thomason are added entries.

Two-milers for the NCI are among the country's best. Laszlo Tabori of Youth Village and Charlie Clark of SJS resume

Revolutionary Military Takes Control in Korea

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—The revolutionary military junta yesterday formally took control of the Republic of Korea's government and opened a nationwide crackdown on Communists and fellow travelers.

The junta sealed its victory in the struggle for power when Premier John M. Chang formally resigned his cabinet yesterday morning and President Posun Yun declared his support for the revolution.

But sources close to the junta said army and marine officers were in disagreement on how long the military revolutionary group should rule. The army, the sources said, insisted the junta must remain in power a long time to wipe out "all corruption and injustices." The marines held that power should be returned to the civilians within the shortest possible time.

The sources said the army also wanted the marines to pull out of the city and be replaced by army troops but that the marines had refused.

To consolidate their power, leaders of the junta expanded the revolutionary command from five to 32 members, including top officers from all the armed services.

PLACED UNDER ARREST

Notably omitted, however, was Lt. Gen. Lee Han Lim, who was reported, without official confirmation, to have been relieved of his command of the First ROK Army guarding the front line against the North Korean Communists and placed under arrest.

Lee threw his support behind the junta only after 48 hours of apparent indecision.

The junta had made anti-Communism one of its major policies and it lost no time in starting to carry out its objective.

Revolutionary authorities ordered a campaign against leftist-leaning Koreans throughout the nation. There was no indication how many were arrested.

Wednesday night, three editors of a so-called progressive newspaper were picked up. Yesterday six editors of a leftist-leaning paper which advocated the neutralization of Korea and contacts with the Communist north were arrested.

SPIES ROUNDED UP

Also nabbed was one of an undisclosed number of alleged spies. Authorities were reported preparing to speed up trials of at least three other suspected Communist agents already in custody.

Lt. Gen. Chang Chang Kook, martial law commander, decreed a surrender period for "spies" lasting from noon yesterday until noon Monday. The edict warned all persons collaborating with spies or working for the Communists to surrender to military counter-intelligence or police in any area. It promised that spies or persons harboring agents who surrender during this period would be treated with leniency.

The expanded military junta included the chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, chiefs of all the armed services and the marine corps commandant.

Gen. Chang Do Yung, army chief of staff, remained chairman. Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Hui, deputy commanding general of the Korean Second Army, generally credited with masterminding the coup, was still listed as the No. 2 man.

The junta's victory came in spite of strong opposition from U.S. military and civil officials in Korea who had sought to restore Premier Chang's government in the early stages of the revolt.

NEW AUTO INSURANCE SAVINGS ANNOUNCED

Savings up to $120 on automobile insurance are now common for married men under 25 years of age with the California Casualty Indemnity Exchange.

"Married men in this age bracket are generally paying excessive premiums for the degree of risk involved," says George M. Campbell, Spartan Representative for the Exchange.

"We believe that a married man with family responsibilities is a more careful driver, and causes fewer accidents," said Campbell. "Therefore, he is entitled to rates for mature drivers."

For example: A married man, age 22, with Bodily Injury Liability $10/20,000, Property Damage $5,000 and Medical $500 pays about $157 a year with most insurance companies. With California Casualty he would pay about $80 less $16 dividend, or a net of $64 (based on current 20 per cent dividend). Thus he saves about $93 with the Exchange. (Other coverages with comparable savings).

Campbell declared that even unmarried men and women with good driving records may save over 20 per cent.

Call or write for full information to George M. Campbell, 566 Maple Ave., Sunnyvale, REgent 9-1741 (day & nite).

DEAR FRESHMAN: Rip? Tear? Why, open a pack of Luckies as you would like to be opened yourself.

FROOD REVEALS SECRET: After exhaustive study and research, Dr. Frood claims to have discovered the reason why college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. His solution is that the word "Collegiate" contains precisely the same number of letters as Lucky Strike—a claim no other leading cigarette can make!
